Cheng Tsao Ju is on a sixty thousand dollar opera house, if he can get the balance taken outside.

He should have no difficulty in securing this. Let the shares be put at an sent to fill. The distinguished ate means, The above amount ought to build a very fine house here. We hope that before the year 1882 expires Brown's opera house will be an accomplished reality.

BRIDAL FLOWERS. Dowell, on Willow avenue, in this Rev. Thomas H. Cleland, pastor of the Presbyterian church, united in marriage Mr. A. T. Elwell and Miss Cora B. McDowell. The service was strictly private, there being present only the immediate relatives of the family. The bride is a daughter of the late I. L. McDowell, formerly a prominent commission merchantat St. Louis, Missouri; also a sister of Mrs. Williams, wife of ex-Alderman Jacob Williams, formerly of Council Bluffs, but now of Omaha, Neb. Among the immediate relatives we would mention Mr. and Mrs. Beneke, of St. Louis; Mrs. I. L. Martin, of Topeka. Kansas; Mrs. Judge Wilson, of Washington, Kansas, and Georgia Jackson. The groom, Mr. A. T. Elwell, is a gentlemen too well known in this community for his business integrity and moral worth for comment.

The esteem with which he is held here was fully manifest at the last city election, when as candidate for the office of city treasurer on the democratic ticket he was elected by a large majority over the strongest man for the position in the ranks of the republican party. Although Mr. E. has always identified himself with the democratic party and does all that he honorably can for its success, since he has held the city treasury he has conducted the same in the interest of the city, and has given complete satisfaction. Since coming to this city, Mr. E. has gained the unbounded confidence of all with whom he has dealings and has yet to do the first act to cast the faintest shadow upon an extended business career. Mrs McDowell, mother of the bride, is a most estimable lady, who long since was called upon to mourn the loss of a husband. She has recently located in Council Bluffs, to be near her children and friends, all of whom she takes pleasure in making happy. THE BEE extends the compliments of the season to Mr. and Mrs. Elwell, and wishes them a long and prosperous career.

During the Hibernian entertain-ment Mayor Vaughan was called upon for a specch. He responded in a few appropriate remarks. He spoke in glowing terms of the two sister cities and their growing importance in the commercial world. He remarked that all feelings of envy and jealousy should be disipated; that the little mud bearing stream called the Missouri should not separate us; that we should pull together and help the Herdie line.

THE BUSINESS BOOM. There has been a time when few teams would be seen on our streets such a day as yesterday, but now the business boom in Council Bluffs defies wind and weather. If the wagon wheels sink out of sight in the mud, they anchor them, transfer the load to the mules' back, as was done on Main street yesterday, and push on. MORE WEDDING BELLS.

On Saturday evening, December 8th, at Carthage, Missouri, Mr. Frank Falkenburg was united in marriage to Miss Mary Winn, both of this city. Mr. Falkenburg has been employed in the capacity of engineer on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad. He has the reputation of being a first-class handler of the throatle. He has held MILLEN'S, Creighton Block.

Miss Winn is a young lady o exceptionally good character and educated in domestic affairs. We congratulate Frank for having secured such a helpmeet for the future. The cigars he is passing around are very good, as his many friends in this community can cheerfully bear testimony. At present the bridal couple are stopping at the Tremont house.

THE ODD FELLOWS PAIR for the benefit of the poor at Dohaney's last night, was a grand success. The following very entertaining programme was carried out, to the delight of all present: Solo, orchestra; Currency 6's..... cornet solo, Joe Raff; solo, Mrs. I. M. Treynor; duet, Mr. I. M. Treynor and Miss Merkle; solo, Miss Blanche Oliver. Remember that every dollar's worth you patronize these entertainments goes for the benefit of the poor of our city.

If successful, the large Herdics will be sent there.
